WILL MEET FACE TO FACE

LORD ROSEBERY DOES NOT INTEND TO ISSUE A MANIFESTO.

He States That He is in the Position of the Soldlers Who Invited the Enemy to Fire First—There Are Now Only Two Parties, the Conservatives and Liberals.

London, July 2.-Lord Rosebery in a speech made at a social gathering of the Eighty club in this city to-night, said that he did not intend to issue either a manifesto or a program. He was rather in the position of those heroic soldiers who politely requested the enemy to fire first. He reminded the new government ofLor d Beaconsfield's assertion that England does not love coalitions. Henceforth he said the dissident liberals would be found shoulder to shoulder with the tories, marching to a very dublous victory under a banner without motto or device. The bitterness of the separation from those people was long past. He rejoiced at the bottom of his heart that they were now sailing under their true colors. The liberals henceforth would meet them face to face and would no longer | September would do. be tormented by a guerilla warfare on the flanks. There was now only two parties-conservatives and liberals.

Lord Rosebery proceeded to discuss the lessons to be learned from the deceat. In 1892, he said, the liberals landed in the house with a multifarious program and a majority that was in- will accept Yale's challenge, provided an e dequate to carry that program through. He counselled the liberals not to repeat their mistakes. They must in the new parliament adapt their policy to the majority.

If they had only a small majority it would be hopeless to attempt any such great constitutional changes as those involved in the home rule, church disstablishment, local veto, and man, one vote" measures. Lord Rosebery's reference to the "guerilla warfare of the unionists" elicited much ap-

ARE TRUE SPORTSMEN.

The Cambridge President Pays a High Compliment to the Yale Men-London, July 2.-Speaking this afternoon on Yale's counter-challenge to Oxford and Camivridge, E. S. Horan, the Cambridge pres'dent, said: "This is so unexpected that I do not know what to say. The matter must be discussed among our fellows before I can venture to say what they will do. We must also consult with the Oxford men. Parts of Yale's reply are a little ambiguous to me. For instance, they that was agreed to Yale would be expected to substitue something else. I cannot understand Yale challenging both Oxford and Cambridge, and think Yale should have been satisfied with challenging the winner of our games The challenge certainly shows that the Yale men are true sportsmen." W. J. Oakley, president of the Oxford Athletic club, said:

"Oxford cannot accept. The date I too late. The college authorities would not permit us to be absent in October. as we must be at Oxford on October 9 But any day during the latter part of

"I don't understand Yale's challenging Oxford and Cambridge. She certainly cannot mean to take us both on. That would not be fair. It is a pity that the challenge has come so late. I will consult with our people as soon as possible, and confer with Mr. Horan. It is likely, however, that whichever is the winner of our intercollegiate games earlier date can be arranged.'

GOOD TEMPLARS' CONVENTION.

The Life and Benefit nsgrance is Laid Over Until the Next Meeting.

Boston, July 2.-At the session of the International Supreme lodge of Good Templars to-day Mr. Malins, chairman of the committee on constitution, reported the following: That the office of district secretary precede that of deputy marshal. It was also voted that the constitutions for the various lodges be designated by printing the words "for grand lodges," "subordinate lodges," etc., etc., on the leaves of each constitution.

Nobody but the chief templar may impart the passwords of the order to the members of his todge. The recommendation that the subordinate lodge adopt some life and benefit Insurance system was opposed by Mr. Malins of England, who said that the matter be laid over until the next session at Zurich. W. Martin Jones of New York favored the proposition, as did Rev. James Yeames, who introduced a resolution favoring the collection of facts concerning benefit systems. Mr. greeting from California was received.

Carton swam ashore with the boy clinging to his arm. The persons in the boat were members of a picnic party.

Albany, July 2.-Secretary of State Palmer to-day received a letter from the secretary of state of New Hampshire asking that Max Shinburn, the bank robber, be turned over to the custody of the state of New Hampshire. Shinburn escaped from prison in New Hampshire while a term of nine years' imprisonment yet remained against him. It is stated that the law of New Hampshire provides an additional penalty of ten years in his case on account of his escape. The letter was sent to the executive chamber. The request is rather unusual and Shinburn is not likely to go back to New Hampshire just yet.

CLERK CANDEE IS DEAD

WAS FOR MILEYEN YEARS CLERK OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Died Suddenly Last Even ng-Was Able to be at His Cflice Yesterday-Police Commissioners Adjourn Out of Respect to His

The meeting of the police commissioners last evening was unusually brief the board adjourning almost immediately out of respect to the memory of the deceased clerk of the police department, Charles T. Candee. As soon as the board had convened Superintendent Smith announced to the members the Commissioners Moran and Hubinger were appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions and the board immediately adjourned.

Subsequently the committee met and adopted the following: The board of police commissioners of New Haven learns with sincere regret and sorrow of the death of Charles T. Candee, who faithfully served the police department as clerk for the past eleven years.

Voted, That as a mark of respect the superintendent be authorized to make a suitable detail from the department fo attendance at the funeral. Voted. That the above be entered or the minutes of the board and that the clerk transmit a copy of the same to the family of the deceased. Voted, That the board do now ad A. C. HENDRICK. Mayor, J. E. HUBINGER,

JAME T. MORAN,

Committee. Charles T. Candee was appointed clerk of the police department February 7 1884, and had been in continuous service in the department ever since. In his death the department loses one of its most trusted and efficient ataches, a man universally beloved and respected by all with whom he came in contact, or who had dealings with him. He had been in failing health for several years, a portion of which time he had been confined to his house.

Yesterday morning he was very much improved and was able to be at the office for a short time yesterday forenoon. During the afternoon, after his return home, he failed rapidly and died at 7:15 o'clock, despite all that medical science and loving care could do for him. He was attended during his illness by Dr. Gilbert. Mr. Candee was sixty-four years old, and leaves a widow and one son, Leverett Candee, the secretary of the Fair Haven and Fair Haven Railroad company. The deceased had served in the police department under Chiefs Webster and Bollmann and Superintendent Smith. He was also an ex-major of the Second regiment, and at one time in command of the regiment, and was an ex-captain of the New Haven Grays He was associated with and prominent in the Grays at the time the late Gen-eral Alfred H. Terry, the late James M. Woodword, and other well known and since prominent New Haveners were connected with the company. Colone Candee's father, Leverett Candee, was the first president of the L. Candee Rubber manufactory, and the company was named the Candee company in honor of its first president, who was largely instrumental in founding it and giving it a basis of its recent great prosperity. Leverett Candee built and re sided for years in the fine house now occupied by the Harmonie club. Col onel Candee was a very fine looking military officer, tall, erect and commanding.

TWO TRAINS COLLIDE. Persons Injured in an Accident on the Old

Colony Road. Boston, July 2.-Two suburban trains on the Old Colony division of the New Haven road were in collision at Milton Junction a little before 7 o'clock tonight. Two persons, a passenger and an employe, were seriously and perhaps fatally injured, and others more or less hurt. The discontinuance of signals at the junction point and the negligence of the engineer of the outward train are said to be the causes of the accident. The engineer of the 6:03 train from Boston on the Shawmut branch arrived at the switch ahead of time. The 6:19 train from Milton for death of Mr. Candee. On motion of Boston by way of Neponset, was pass-Commissioner Glibuly the mayor and ing. The brakes on the outward train failed to work and the engine struck the second car of the inward train a glancing blow, throwing it from the rails and then crashed into the baggage car at the end of the train and threw it also into the marsh.

Michael Garvey, of No. 4 Holmes place, was hurt. He was taken to the city hospital in the ambulance, where he lies in a dangerous condition. He was in the car which overset. Conduc tor Henry Price, of the inward train, was injured internally and taken to his

TWO MUNICIPAL MEETINGS. Selectmen and Fire Commissioners Trans net Routine Business

Town Counsel Goodhart and the members of the board of selectmen were able to hold a peaceful meeting last evening, not the slightest ripple of a tilt between the republican majority and the democratic minority disturbing the calm serenity of the session. A petition for the top dressing and hardening of Gilbert street in Westville was referred to the committee on roads and bridges with instructions to report back to the board at the next meeting. It was also voted to advertise for bids for the construction of a sea wall along the water side in the Fifteenth ward, and proceed with the work as soon as

The New Haven Street Railway con pany presented a petition asking for permission to extend the tracks of the Edgewood avenue branch in Westville to the Pond Lily paper mill, in accordance with the provisions of its charter. The selectmen decided to hold a public hearing on the petition next Tuesday evening.

So I readily accepted the invitation when in 1626.) your committee invited me. And it gives me pleasure in behalf of my offitial position as mayor of the city to extend to you, one and all, a hearty welcome. I am informed that many of you are prominent at home in business and professional pursuits. The German Americans are true to the country of their adoption and develop the best qualities of citizenship. The German people get the most enjoyment and pleasure for the money expended of any people. There is no doubt about that question. Again I extend to you all a nost hearty welcome, and hope that you may be glad that you have chosen New Haven for your fourth singing festi-

Herr August Kleinan, president of the New York Harugari Liederkranz and who was the presiding officer of the mmers, then responded to Mayor Hendrick's address of welcome. He thanked the mayor for the words of welcome he had spoken and said that all mem-bers of the Order of the Harugari had it in their hearts to be good and true American citizens. Although they were not Americans by birth, they were by choice. They meant to be true to all that the American idea represents, re-taining at the same time their love and veneration for the traditions of the Fatherland.

POMPEIL'S DESTRUCTION. Realistic, Wonderful Work of Art and

The fact that almost every school boy knows of the destruction of Hercullaneum and Pompeli is one reason for the large crowds which witness Pain's "Destruction of Pompeil" at Savin Rock every night this week. But that is not by any means the only or chief reason. The production is grand, magnificent and artistic and certainly The Harugari Liedertafel sang anothdeserving of highest praise. The skill with which such large scenes are so easily managed and the manner in which the pyrotechnic display is arranged no one should miss seeing it.

Three Half Seconds-In the Other Race He Kept Up With O'Connor and Cole Who Were on a Tandem as Pace Makers Grand Rapids, July 2 .- John S. Johnson captured a $1,000 purse this afternoon, winning two out of three heats from

Sanger and Tyler, the time being 2:04%, 2:1014, 2:0914. As early as 6 o'clock this morning wheelmen from the surrounding towns began rolling into the city. The noted trio of cyclers arrived at 12:30 and at once went to Comstock park, where the contest took place. Just after the sec-ond heat in the 2:30 horse race Sanger, Johnson and Tyler came on the track for a preliminary spin. They went against a horse for a mile heat and beat him with ease. The crowd was delighted with the exhibition and gave the cyclers an ovation. O'Connor and Cole rode the tar sacing the cyclers in their first heat, They made a flying start. Sanger took the pole. Tyler was in the center. Sanger forged ahead in the first quarter with Tyler next and Johnson behind about a length apart. The first quarter was made in 31% and the half in 1:01%. The riders held their first posttions to the last quarter, when Johnson made a terrific spurt, going under the wire half a length ahead of Sanger, with Tyler only a length behind, Time, O'Connor and Weinig paced the wheel men in the second heat. They made a perfect start with Johnson at the pole. He held the lead for the first quarter, Tyler in the rear. They ran only two feet apart at the half. Johnson hugged the tandem closely. Sanger won the heat, with Johnson second. Time,

O'Connor and Cole paced the third heat. Sanger took the pole and led to the quarter by a length. The finish was characterized by hot spurts between Sanger and Johnson, with Tyler two lengths behind. Johnson won the heat and the race. Time, 2:091/2. Johnson went against his record, 2 minutes, on a dirt track for a purse of $500, but failed. He made the mile in Shannahan Case. Norwich, July 2.-Coroner Brown to day announced his verdict on the death of Johanna Shannahan, whose mysterious death has puzzled this city for two weeks. The verdict is that death resulted from arsenical poisoning. Appended to the report was the finding of Professor Smith of Yale, who says that It seemed improbable that any one could force the woman to take the quantity of arsenic found in her stomach

Professor Smith also reported finding Violin solo-Two Gipsy Dances. Machez | arsenic in the mucous spots on the w man's clothing, showing that she had vomited. There seems to be a general belief that no one is implicated in Miss Shan-mahan's death and that she took the poison either by intent or mistake.

Cononel Doherty to Resign. Hartford, July 2 .- A letter was received at the adjutant general's office at the capitol this afternoon from Colonel John B. Doherty of Waterbury, senior commanding officer of the Second regiment C. N. G., requesting that he be placed upon the retired list. The action of Colonel Doherty has been Entemplated for a long time. He has been connected with the military for twenty-three years and has been colonel of the Second rge iment for the past six years, succeeding Colonel W. J. Leavenworth of Wallingford. It is thought that Colonel Burpe of Waterbury is Colonel Doherty's probable successor. A request was also received at the adjutant general's office to-day from Dr. John M. Benedict of Waterbury, who also desires to be plac# ed upon the retired list.

FIRE IN THE CONVENT. Sisters of Mercy's Home on Franklin Street in Dang r-Fire Department's Good

Fire broke out last evening in the attic of the Sisters' of Mercy convent on Franklin street, near State. The fire was discovered by John Barrett, who lives on Hamilton street directly in the rear of the convent. He saw. smoke and flames issuing from the tur-rets in the convent. He immediately, warned the occupants of the home and an alarm was sent in from box 57 at the corner of State and Pearl streets. The fire department responded with retime the fire was under complete con-trol. The fire undoubtedly started from the chimney flue. Some old hair mattresses were stored near the chimney and it is thought that these caught fire from the chimney for the laundry. The work of the department certainly deserves great praise. They arrived at the fire in remarkably short time and were at work fighting what promised to be a very fierce fire.

The damage will probably amount to about $1,000, which is fully covered by insurance, Rev. John Russell, pastor of St. Patrick's church, has the care of the convent. He stated last evening that the insurance was with Charles Wilson & Co.
